Konsen Soft Serve Map

The Konsen District located in Eastern Hokkaido, is the largest pastoral dairyland in the nation. Delicious soft serve ice cream, made from fresh milk taken from grass fed cows, is made at many places. We created a special map that shows where you will find great soft serve ice cream made with generous amounts of fresh Konsen milk.

Icons indicate dairy farmers that are responsible for the entire process of raising, milking, producing milk used to make soft serve ice cream.
